STRIVING TO RESCUE ENTOMBED GOLD MINERS

TRIBUNE CANDIDATES CLOSELY BUNCHED AS FIRST PERIOD ENDS; NEXT TWO WEEKS IMPORTANT

Closing Hour Saturday Night Showed All Contestants Alive to Their Possibilities and Straining to Turn In, All the Subscriptions Possible.—Big Returns of Day Put First Lap Over as Greatest Possible Success with Returns Far in Excess of Fondest Expectations.—Speaks Volumes for Popularity of Paper, and Honesty and Integrity of Campaign Management.

The first lap of the great "Everybody Wins" contest by the Tribune closed as scheduled at 9 p. m. Saturday, August 26, and it closed with the colors flying high. Was the first lap of the great contest a success? Well "I should say it was." Not only was it a success; it was a complete blaze of glory. The contestants began reporting early in the day, and all through the day Saturday and up to the closing hour at night they flocked in with their subscriptions and votes until the swamped campaign manager had to call for help.

"I have conducted many successful campaigns for newspapers throughout the middle west, but I have never before been in a contest which has shown the ready response and eager enthusiasm of contestants as is shown in the Tribune's 'Everybody Wins' contest, said the manager, looking up over the stacks of vote coupons, currency and filled out subscription blanks piled high upon his desk. Why it is astounding and surely speaks volumes for the popularity of the Tribune and the confidence that the people have in it and its business honesty.

NOTICE.
Owing to the enormous amount of business on both new and old subscription collections turned in on the largest extra vote offer of the entire campaign, closing last Saturday night, and the fact that several delayed mail reports reached this office late this afternoon, the scores of the candidates were brought so close together that the campaign managers deemed it advisable to check all original orders before making another count of votes.

The managers hope to be able to have another count of votes in tomorrow's issue of The Tribune.

"And," he added, in speaking to the enthusiastic crowd watching the final count of the first lap, "the people in this city and this county do have abiding faith in the honest purpose of the management of the Tribune and the management of this campaign. When I signed my contract with the Tribune management they reminded me that this contest would have to be an honest one from start to finish and I have found out that the management meant just that. Their precautions were not necessary, however, because I would not endanger my reputation by trying to conduct a contest any other way than upon a strictly honest and honorable basis in which every statement made would be kept to the letter of the law. The management of the Tribune find it just as insistent upon this as I, and therefore our relations are mutually pleasant.

Second Period Begins.
Now the second lap begins, and it will be a greater success than the first of the confidence an enthusiasm of the contestants make it so. They have confidence because they know that the contest is absolutely on the square, and they have enthusiasm because they meet with so much encouragement out in the field soliciting subscriptions.

Extra votes will be given in large numbers during this second period of the campaign.

Every $30 worth of subscription payments candidates turn in will entitle them to 175,000 extra votes, over and above the regular number issued according to schedule.

MAY START AIR FLIGHT TO NORTH POLE
(By the Associated Press)
Nome, Alaska, Aug. 28.—Captain Roald Amundsen, who last month transferred to the schooner Holmes, from the Maud on his Arctic expedition, is now at Wainwright, 100 miles southwest of Point Barrow, according to a message from Captain S. C. Cochran of the coast guard cutter Bear.

It is thought here that Captain Amundsen and his party have transferred to the Bear from the Holmes, due to heavy ice and that they may be planning to start at Wainwright the airplane flight which the explorer planned over the arctic circle.

SLOPE FAIR IS OPENED TODAY TO BIG CROWD

Parade Marks the Formal Opening of Annual Exhibit at Mandan Fair Grounds

HISTORIC COACH SHOWN
Deadwood - Mandan Coach Leads Parade—Exhibits Largest Ever

The formal opening of the Missouri Slope fair in Mandan took place this morning when the Deadwood-Mandan stage coach of historic interest led a parade of some two hundred automobiles and floats from Mandan to the Slope fair grounds.

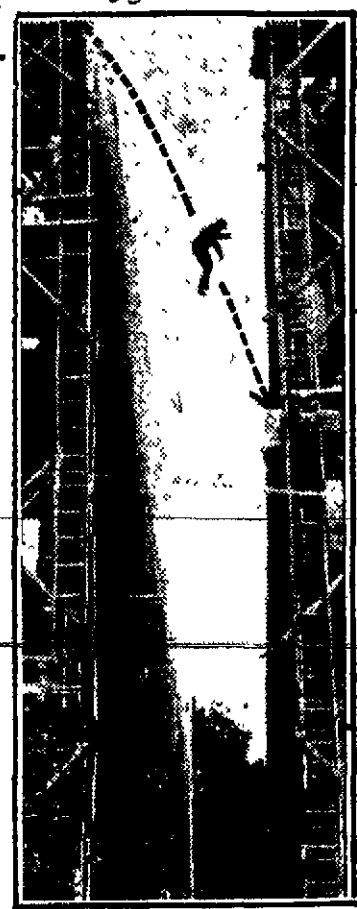

Not only was the attendance the largest ever recorded on an opening day of the fair but the number of exhibits also was the greatest ever shown. Twice as many dairy herds were on the grounds as were on exhibition a year ago and in addition to the herds, more than a score of individual entries were on exhibition.

So large had the entry list that the hog department was closed a week before the fair opened because of lack of room to take care of more entries.

In the women's department, where last year 800 entries were recorded, this year more than 2,000 entries were on display.

Thirty horses are entered in the harness events of the afternoon while a novelty is promised in a ladies' style driving contest. A "far west" display will be held each day.

UNION OF DRY FORCES OF U.S., STATE, PLANNED

Attorney General Johnson and Prohibition Director Go to Washington

Attorney General Svenbjorn Johnson and North Dakota prohibition director Stone are on their way to Washington today to lay before the prohibition commission Roy Hayden's plan tentatively agreed upon between them for joint enforcement of the prohibition law in North Dakota.

Acting in the belief that the federal agents and the state licensing department under the attorney-general can work in conjunction, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Stone have endeavored to work out a practical system for unification, the first attempt made along this line in the country.

Under the plan to be presented to Mr. Stone, it is understood, Attorney-General Johnson would agree to give the state prohibition director authority of a chief state inspector and as such he could exercise authority over such state agents as would be available for aid in prohibition enforcement work.

Among the things which the state department can do and the federal prohibition agent cannot do is in the employment of "under cover" men who can conduct investigations and conceal their identity and purchase automobiles for the use of prohibition enforcement agents. It is pointed out that federal agents unable to conceal their identity soon become known and their effectiveness is curtailed. Federal prohibition forces do not have their own automobiles, relying upon automobile livery for transportation.

The joint forces would work together both in running down liquor runners and in confiscating stills, it is understood.

400,000 WAY MEN DEMAND MORE WAGES

Base Claim for Higher Salary on Increase in Living Costs

STRIKE VOTE TAKEN

E. T. Grable Enters Negotiation with Authority to Declare Immediate Walkout

(By the Associated Press)
Chicago, Aug. 28.—Nine men are in custody and four have been implicated in an alleged plot, declared to have been inspired by radicals in connection with the wreck of a Michigan Central Express train at Gary, Indiana, a week ago.

Further arrests are expected and police and railroad agents continued to throw much secrecy around the case.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Railway maintenance of way employees complaining approximately 400,000 track workers and crossing flagmen, placed their demands for increased pay before the U. S. Railroad labor board here today.

Hearing by the railroad labor board was begun today on a petition of the united brotherhood of maintenance of way employees and railroad shop laborers on more than 100 railroads asking an increase of minimum wages from 23 cents to 48 cents an hour, a virtual demand for recognition of a basis eight hour day with time and one-half for overtime.

E. F. Grable, president of the track men, who with W. L. McMeekin and Chairman Hooper of the labor board were credited with holding the strike in check when the shopmen threw down their tools, opened the hearing by presenting the demand for a minimum wage of forty-eight cents an hour.

The scale provided by the board's July 1 decision ranged from 23 to 35 cents.

The maintenance men based their claims for higher wages on increases in the cost of living.

Mr. Grable on entering the hearing today was armed with a strike vote. On the 302 class one roads of the country, 105 were parties to the dispute before the board today.

Mr. Grable characterized the case as the most important which has come before the board since its creation.

"The maintenance of way employees have remained at work since July 1 under the expectation and actual assurance by the original framers of the transportation act that they would be able to secure a living wage under the provisions of the existing law," he said.

75 MINERS ENTOMBED; FIRE BURNING

Famous Argonaut Gold Mine Has Fire Which Holds Men Captive

ENTIRE NIGHT FORCE

Crew Leaves in Effort to Save Those in Danger.—Below 8000-foot Mark

Jackson, Cal., Aug. 28.—Seventy-five men entombed in the famous Argonaut gold mine, below the 8,500 foot level, by fire which broke out in the main shaft shortly after midnight, were still in the mine at 7:30 o'clock this morning. Fire continued burning and efforts were being made to reach the miners through the Muldoon shaft which touches the vein where the men were working.

The Muldoon shaft has been used as an air feed to the mine in recent months and the opinion was expressed by those who visited the scene early today that rescue would be effected through it within a few hours.

75 ENTOMBED.

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—Seventy-five men, comprising the entire night force of the Argonaut mine, Jackson, Amador county, are entombed in the mine as the result of a fire which broke out at midnight, according to a report received by Byron O. Pickard at Berkeley, of the state bureau of mines, from H. Downing, superintendent of the mine.

A rescue crew headed by Pickard and Rodney Hexco left Berkeley for Jackson early today to effect a rescue of the men held in the mine below the 8,000 foot mark.

H. M. Wolf, superintendent of safety of the California Industrial accident commission, was advised early this morning by telephone from the Argonaut mine, Amador county, that A. Garbrin, manager of the mine, had enlisted the aid of a rescue crew and gone into the mine shaft in an attempt to smother the flames.

Official advice said the number of men entombed in the Argonaut was "about fifty."

STUNT FLYER PLUNGES 500 FEET TO DEATH

(By the Associated Press)
Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 28.—Authorities today searched for relatives of Selmer Jacobson, Stunt Flyer, who plunged 500 feet from an airplane to his death yesterday. In view of 2,000 persons assembled at the Lyndale airport here.

Jacobson was trying to qualify for a job with a flying circus and lost his grip when he attempted to hang by his knees from the rope ladder suspended below a plane piloted by Charles Holman, of Minneapolis.

Investigation of the accident today showed that the lead weight attached to the end of the rope ladder to keep it straight slipped from the rope and fell to the ground just before Jacobson lost his grasp.

HARDING BACK, AWAIT ACTION ON THE STRIKE

Chief Executive Is Expected to Define Scope of Policy Within Few Days

ADVISED WITH OTHERS
During Week-End Cruise
President Takes Up Matters Involving Strikes

Washington, Aug. 28.—President Harding and the party of officials who accompanied him on a week-end cruise down the Potomac, returned to the capital early today on the presidential yacht Mayowor, docking at the navy yard shortly before 8 o'clock. The president went direct to the White House from the boat.

President Harding's return from his week-end cruise, during which he has advised with officials, who have accompanied him, on the strike situation, was expected in some quarters to be followed by a definite announcement of the administration's policy with respect to the proposal that congress authorize the executive to take over and operate rail and coal properties. The exact scope of the government's policy will be revealed in any event within the next few days.

With Borah bill for a fact finding coal commission laid aside in the senate until the middle of the week, efforts at the capital to deal with the strike problem were confined today to committee hearings to consider the respective distribution bills introduced by Chairman Cummins and Chairman Winslow of the house interstate commerce commission.

Federal Officers Seize Liniment

(By the Associated Press)
Fargo, N. D., Aug. 28.—The arrest at Minot yesterday of H. B. Tolley, charged by Federal prohibition officers with having 25 cases of Bodur in his possession was announced today by the United States marshal's office here. Bodur, according to the prohibition office, is a preparation for use as a liniment and containing a percentage of alcohol.

TO NAME TREASURER.

Dickinson, N. D., Aug. 28.—Action on the resignation of C. C. Turner as county treasurer is probably the most important business to come before the county commissioners at their regular monthly session. Mr. Turner who was recently appointed received of the United States land office in Dickinson has tendered his resignation to become effective September 1. On that date he will assume his duties in the federal office succeeding W. B. Dixon, the present receiver.

It is probably that Miss Vivian Turner, deputy treasurer, will be appointed to fill the remainder of his unexpired term by the county board.

BISMARCK BOYS ARE CAUGHT ON TRACKS OF N. P.

Fred Wilmonsky and Herbert Mortensen Live but Short Time After Accident

WITNESSED BY MANY
Passengers in Other Automobiles Horrified to See Boys Drive in Front of Train

Apparently unaware of their danger, Herbert Mortensen and Fred G. Wilmonsky of Bismarck drove directly in front of Northern Pacific passenger train No. 7 Sunday afternoon at the crossing between the Missouri river and Mandan in plain sight of a number of horrified people. Both were fatally injured, Mortensen living but about a half hour after being received in St. Alexis hospital, Bismarck, and Wilmonsky only a few minutes after he was taken to the Deaconess hospital in Mandan.

The accident happened shortly before 4 o'clock Sunday as the boys were returning from Mandan to Bismarck. The N. P. train was going west, and was late. It was moving down the incline from the river bridge into Mandan. Glen Lonnie, driver of a taxi, had seen the approach of the train and stopped. There were other cars behind the taxi.

The coupe carrying Mortensen and Wilmonsky swung around the cars, with the former driving. Lonnie, who saw the approaching train, yelled at the boys. Wilmonsky waved his hand, but apparently did not catch the words of the warning. Mortensen apparently did not hear Lonnie's warning. They were driving only at a fair rate of speed and as they went up the incline at the crossing their speed slackened perceptibly. Had they seen the train they could have speeded up and avoided the collision, witnesses say.

Almost Across Track
W. H. Machie, one of those who helped pick up the boys, said that the car was almost across the track, that it missed the pilot of the engine but that a cylinder head on the engine caught the car. It was carried and hurled probably fifty feet from the crossing. The car was demolished, the top being almost literally torn into bits. One of the boys was thrown a short distance from the car, and the other was lying across the demolished front of it, when picked up. Both were breathing.

Among those who assisted in picking up the boys and sending them to hospitals were R. B. Loubek of Bismarck, who brought Mortensen to Bismarck in his car, H. L. Dahners, J. E. Melton, Glen Lonnie and W. H. Machie in another car took Wilmonsky to the Deaconess hospital.

The accident deeply affected many other motorists who saw the boys drive in front of the train. Two girls who were in the taxi fainting succession and then became hysterical. News of the disaster quickly spread and many friends rushed either to the scene or to the hospitals.

According to Glen Lonnie the whistle or bell was not sounded by the railroad train as it approached the crossing. There is a clear view of the track to the curve, however. Some have advanced the theory that dust obscured the vision of the driver.

Both Terribly Injured
Wilmonsky's back was broken, a leg was broken, a hole crushed in the back of his head. His face was marked only by a cut over the eye. Physicians said that the death of Mortensen was caused by a fracture and concussion of the skull. All though he suffered bruises on all parts of his body, it was the fracture of the skull that caused his death, they said.

Mortensen was 20 years and 9 months old, and had been in Bismarck for a year and a half, working at Murphy's barbershop on Broadway.

Wilmonsky was 23 years of age and had been in Bismarck about five years, first attending business college, then working at the First National Bank, and for about the last three years had been bookkeeper for the O. N. Dunham Lumber Company. Both boys came from the northern part of the state and were roommates in Bismarck at the home of G. G. Beithon, 8 Thayer street.

The father, brother and brother-in-law of Mortensen arrived in Bismarck during the night and expect to take the body to Gardena, Bottineau county, for burial today or tomorrow. Herbert Mortensen was the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mortensen, who live in Gardena, and operate a farm near there. They had three children: William, a daughter, Mrs. Anna Boltz and Herbert, their youngest child. Herbert had worked usually gets shown who he is.

The RED HOUSE MYSTERY

by A. MILNE

In the morning there was a letter for him.

"Is there another inn at Stanton—fairly close to the station?"

"That would be the one. I suppose you could do with a drink, couldn't you?"

"Rather!" said Bill, with a grin. "Good. Then have one at the 'Plough and Horses'—just at the corner where the road goes up to the station—is that the one you mean?"

"I didn't," said Robert, said Antony, smiling. "I just want you to find out if they had a visitor who slept there on Monday night. A stranger. If so, then any particulars you can get of him, without letting the landlord know that you are interested."

"Leave it to me," broke in Bill. "I know just what you want."

"Don't assume that it was Robert—or anybody else. Let them describe the man to you. Don't influence them unconsciously by suggesting that he was short or tall, or anything of that sort. Just get them talking. If it's the landlord, you'd better stand him a drink or two."

"Right you are," said Bill confidently. "Where do I meet you again?"

"Probably at the 'George.' If you get there before me, you can order dinner for eight o'clock. Anyway, we'll meet at eight, if not before."

"Good." He nodded to Antony and strode off back to Stanton again. Antony stood watching him with a little smile at his enthusiasm. Then he looked round slowly, as if in search of something. Suddenly he saw what he wanted. Twenty yards farther on a lane wandered off to the left, and there was a gate a little way up on the right-hand side of it. Antony walked to the gate, filling his pipe as he went. Then he lit his pipe, sat on the gate, and took his heads in his hands. "Now then," he said to himself, "let's begin at the beginning."

It was nearly eight o'clock when William Beverley, the famous sleuth-hound, arrived tired and dusty, at the "George," to find Antony cool and clean, standing bare-headed at the door, waiting for him.

"Is dinner ready?" were Bill's first words.

"Yes."

"Then I'll just have a wash. Lord I'm tired."

"I never ought to have asked you," said Antony penitently.

"That's all right. I shan't be a moment." Half-way up the stairs he turned round and asked, "Am I in your room?"

"Yes. Do you know the way?"

"Yes. Start carving, will you? And order lots of beer." He disappeared round the top of the staircase. Antony went slowly in.

When the first edge of his appetite had worn off, and he was able to spare a little time between the mouthfuls, Bill gave an account of his adventures. The landlord of the "Plough and Horses" had been sticky, decidedly sticky—Bill had been unable at first to get anything out of him. But Bill had been tactful; lordless, how tactful he had been.

"He kept on about the inquest, and what a queer affair it had been, and so on. Then I said carefully that it must be very hard to remember anybody whom you had just seen once, so as to identify him afterward, and he agreed that it would be 'middlin' hard, and then—"

"Give me three guesses," interrupted Antony. "You asked him if he remembered anybody who came to his inn?"

"That's it. Bright, wasn't it?"

"Excellent. And what was the result?"

"The result was a woman."

"A woman?" said Antony eagerly.

"A woman," said Bill impressively. "Of course I thought it was going to be Robert—so did you, didn't you?—but it wasn't. It was a woman. Came quite late on Monday night in a car—driving herself—went off early next morning."

"Did he describe her?"

"Yes. She was middlin'. Middlin' tall, middlin' age, middlin' color, and so on. Doesn't heff much, does it? But still—a woman. Does that upset your theory?"

Antony shook his head.

"No, Bill, not at all," he said.

"You knew all the time? At least you guessed?"

"Wait till tomorrow. I'll tell you everything tomorrow."

"Tomorrow!" said Bill in great disappointment.

"Well, I'll tell you one thing to-night, if you'll promise not to ask any more questions. But you probably know it already."

"What is it?"

"Only that Mark Ablett did not kill his brother."

"And Cayley did?"

"That's another question. Bill. However, the answer is that Cayley didn't, either."

"Then who on earth—"

"Have some more beer," said Antony with a smile. And Bill had to be content with that.

They were early to bed that evening, for both of them were tired. Bill lay awake, wondering. What was happening at the Red House now? Perhaps he would hear in the morning; perhaps he would get a letter. He went over the whole story again from the beginning—was there any possibility of a mistake? What would the police do? Would they ever find out? Ought he to have told them? Well, let them find out; it was their job. Surely he couldn't have made a mistake this time. No good wondering now; he would know definitely in the morning.

gued; and while we were arguing, Philip was arrested. It killed my mother—he was always her favorite—but Mark, as usual, got his satisfaction out of it. He preened himself on his judgment of character in having chosen me and not Philip twelve years before!

"Later on I apologized to Mark for the reckless things I had said to him, and he played the part of a magnanimous gentleman with his accustomed skill, but, though outwardly we were as before to each other, from that day forward, though his vanity would never let him see it, I was his bitterest enemy."

"If that had been all, I wonder if I should have killed him? To live on terms of intimate friendship with a man whom you hate is dangerous work for your friend. Because of his belief in me as his admiring and grateful protegee and his belief in himself as my benefactor, he was now utterly in my power. I could take my time and choose my opportunity. Perhaps I should not have killed him, but I had sworn to have my revenge—and there he was, poor vain fool, at my mercy. I was in no hurry."

"Two years later I had to reconsider my position, for my revenge was being taken out of my hands. Mark began to drink. Could I have stopped him? I don't think so, but to my immense surprise I found myself trying to. Instinct, perhaps, getting the better of reason; or did I reason it out and tell myself that, if he drank himself to death, I should lose my revenge? Upon my word, I cannot tell you; but for whatever motive, I did genuinely want to stop it. Drinking is such a beastly thing, anyhow."

Retirement Fund Cost Is Slight

Total administrative cost of the North Dakota Teachers Insurance and Retirement fund for the year ending June 30, 1922, was $1,847. This includes the pay of the secretary, the expenses of the office and the travel of the board members in attending different meetings. The fund is administered by a board made up of Miss Fanny C. Ludden of Valley City, P. S. Berg, secretary of Dickinson, Miss M. Beatrice Johnson of Grand Forks, and the state treasurer and state superintendent as ex-officio members. The annual report of the secretary was received at a meeting at the state capitol this week.

With such a cost for administration, the teachers retirement fund had a balance on hand of $351,152.80 at the end of the fiscal year, about $60,000 of this being in cash and one of the actions of the board in its meetings was to invest in money and some added to it since the first of the fiscal year in school bonds, about $100,000 being invested in the paper of North Dakota school districts. Forty-eight former teachers of North Dakota are on the list of annuitants. These received $18,131.85. Teachers who have discontinued teaching in the state received $2,765.70 in the withdrawal of their interest in the insurance and one refund of $10 was made, making the total withdrawals from the fund for the year $22,254.54.

The fund received, from county tuition assessments of teachers, students and individuals and deposits on their bonds and deposits of rates of deposits amounted to $28,000.

Can Blackberries Now
They'll be on the market only for a short time.
THIS year put up more canned blackberries and blackberry jam. Have plenty of this delicious spread for muffins, biscuits, bread and rolls—for every meal. Take a jar on your next picnic.
Now is the time to put up blackberries at home—in Ball Mason jars. They make a delightful dessert and wonderful pies.
The plump, rich-flavored blackberries from Puyallup and Sumner, Washington, are now on the market at reasonable prices.
Factory-prepared fruits are extravagant. By putting up your own fruit you save one-third to one-half.
Pacific N. W. Growers & Jobbers Ass'n
General Offices, Minneapolis, Minn.
Here's a good recipe for Canned Blackberries.
Select all firm fruit (Use soft for jam). Place in sterilized pint glass. Cover with syrup made of—
1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup water
Place top layer. Place in boiler with cold water, do not allow water to be above top of jars. Allow water to come to boil. Remove from fire. Fruit will shrink in about 3 or 4 minutes. Fill from one jar to another. This will give more fruit per jar. Cover and place again in hot water and boil 10 minutes. Tighten tops and allow to cool. Keep in cool place.

ed in Rugby and Mayville for a brief time after leaving home and before coming to Bismarck, they said. Herbert had made a large number of friends while working at his trade in Bismarck.

Second Misfortune

family of Fred Wilmovsky, Sr., according to friends here. He has a farm and summer resort at Strawberry Lake, near Russo, which is in northern McLean county. A few years ago a little daughter was killed when a horse pushed a barn door out on her. The family placed great dependence upon Fred Jr., and he had only a few days taken out a life insurance policy for $1,000, with double indemnity in case of accidental death, and named his mother as beneficiary. He also was a member of the A. O. U. W. and carried a policy in that order.

H. L. Dobler, manager of the O. N. Dunham Lumber Co., was in Mandan with friends when he learned of the accident, and having seen the boys driving about, went to the scene. The boys had been taken to the hospitals at that time. He found the hat of Wilmovsky with his initials in it. After learning of the death of the youth he telephoned to Russo to make arrangements for the family to be notified. Mr. Wilmovsky, he was informed, was at Williston to buy some cattle. Friends in Russo informed the family of the accident. The body was at an unhe removed to Russo for burial. H.

J. and A. W. Wilmovsky, brothers of Fred Jr., arrived in Bismarck this morning. Coroner Kennelly of Mandan did not expect to hold an inquest, since both boys died under the care of physicians in the hospitals.

MAY VIEW BODY.

It was announced this afternoon that the body of Wilmovsky was being brought to Bismarck from Mandan and the remains might be viewed at Webbs Undertaking parlors between 7 and 9 p. m. tonight.

NEW YORK GETS NEARER TO PENNANT

(By the Associated Press) Chicago, Aug. 28.—Taking their third straight game from the Cardinals at St. Louis, the New York Nationals lengthened their lead in the pennant race to seven games, while the Cardinals dropped to third position, being replaced as runners-up by the Cubs who won from the Phillies 3 to 1.

Cincinnati took both ends of a doubleheader from the Braves and moved into the first division, Pittsburgh being agile, dropping to fifth place.

In the American league Washington though out hit by Detroit, win 7 to 2. The Yankees and the Browns were prevented from playing by rain. They will play off the game today. The Browns, in an effort to even the series and regain first place will send Urban Shocker to the mound. He probably will be opposed by Bob Shawkey.

In taking their third game from St. Louis, 12 to 8, the Giants pounded three Cardinal hurlers for eighteen hits. McQuinn was touched for 14 hits by the Cardinals. Rogers Hornsby made his thirty-second home run of the season. Cincinnati shutout the Braves in the first game and rallied in the eighth and ninth innings of the second, over coming a two run lead the Braves had taken in the seventh with five runs. The final score was 7-0.

MITCHELL TEAM BOOSTS LEAD

Final Standing of Dakota Leagues Shows Fargo in Tie for Third Place

The Mitchell team, three times champions of the Dakota baseball league, increased the margin of leadership Sunday by defeating Jamestown. Fargo dropped to a tie for second place with Aberdeen, when the Greys defeated the Fargo aggregation, 8 to 4, the splitting a double-header Saturday which "Lefty" Higgins, former Bismarck pitcher, shut out Fargo with but five hits.

The Valley City-Bismarck team added two more losses Sunday, Sioux Falls taking the games, 2 to 0 and 6 to 5.

Viewed from the standpoint of attendance, interest and sale of players the season of the Dakota league was successful and if Bismarck is in the league next year it will be strengthened.

FINE PLAYERS FOR STALLING

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Manager Miller Huggins and four members of the New York American League club and three players of the Chicago Americans were fined by Ban Johnson, president of the American League, today in connection with the protested New York-Chicago game here on Aug. 1. Huggins drew the largest fine, $100. The others were assessed $25 each. The fines against the New York players were imposed for what President Johnson termed "the disgraceful exhibition of stalling" in the contest which resulted in a protest by the Chicago club. The New York players fined in addition to Manager Huggins, were Robert Meusel, Everett Scott, Waite Hoyt and Wallie Schang. The Chicago players who also were fined were Urban Faber, Bob Falk, and Ray Schalk.

Kilbane Prepares for Dundee Bout

(By the Associated Press) Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 28.—Johnny Kilbane, for ten years holder of the featherweight championship, is getting ready for the defense of his title, with a view of a match with Johnny Dundee of New York, the featherweight contender.

Kilbane, according to his admirers, today has shown a new interest in boxing since Dundee scored a knocked out victory over Danny Frush in New York. Frush also fell a victim to Kilbane's right hand smashes in a championship match here a year ago. The featherweight champion, if he agrees to box Dundee, probably will insist upon staging the match in Cleveland.

Friends of Kilbane say he is willing to meet Dundee, but since the New York boxing commission recently declared his title forfeited, it will be only when the champion gets ready and will be for a sizeable purse. Those close to Kilbane believe he will expect his share of the purse for a bout with Dundee to total between $75,000 and $100,000.

Kilbane is in good condition, as a result of several weeks of light training and work on his newly purchased summer home near Vermillion, Ohio, on Lake Erie, and it would not take him long to reach his top form, according to his followers.

The champion will not be crowded into any match, his friends declare, and several telegrams from New York promoters asking for his terms have met with no response.

BATTLE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

U. S. GOLFERS LEAD BRITISH

(By the Associated Press) Southampton, N. Y., Aug. 28.—American amateur golfers were leading their English opponents at the end of 18 holes today in three of the four scotch 36-hole tournaments which were first engagements of the two day's matches for the Walker cup.

St. Paul.—George Quinn is in a local hospital suffering from gunshot wounds as a result of his attempt to eject three uninvited guests from a wedding. The three guests are in jail pending investigation.

AT THE MOVIES
THE ELTINGE
Cecil B. DeMille's big production "Saturday Night" was finished one Wednesday night.

Sounds a bit confusing, doesn't it? But from the time Mr. DeMille announced the title of his latest Paramount picture, confusion was the order of the day around the Lasky studios at Hollywood, Calif.

"What are you doing Friday night?" one actor would ask another.

"I'm working on 'Saturday Night'."

"I am taking about Friday night."

"And I told you in plain English that I am working Friday night on 'Saturday Night' and I can't accept your invitation."

"You're working Friday night on 'Saturday Night'?" Say, are you crazy or am I? Now listen here; quit this nonsense and tell me: are you working on Friday night?"

"I'm not crazy. I told you and I'll tell you again: I'm working Friday night on 'Saturday Night'."

"Oh.....! Then come over next week."

From which it will be observed that the Eltinge is within the bounds of reason in advertising that "Saturday Night" comes on Monday and Tuesday this week.

CAPITOL
"Channing of the Northwest," which comes to the Capitol theater tonight for a run of two days, offers Eugene O'Brien the type of role his admirers have long wished he would play. There is perhaps no screen star of the day more fitted to play the part of the English gentleman forced by circumstances to emigrate to Northwest and there adapt himself to the adventurous existence life in that part of the world demands.

WHEAT PRICE GOES UPWARD; BETTER DEMAND
Corn Advances in Sympathy but Reacted Later on Profit Taking

(By the Associated Press)
Chicago, Aug. 28.—Wheat prices shot upward at the start today, following reports of unexpected strength at Liverpool, brought about by a fact which was that the foreign political and financial situation showed improvement. There was a general buying early and shorts covered freely, but little purchasing from outside sources was in evidence during the early dealings and the best figures were not maintained due to scattered profit taking. The opening which ranged from 7/8 to 1 1/8 higher, with September $1.03 to $1.04 1/2 was followed by a reaction all around.

Corn advanced in sympathy with wheat but reacted later on profit taking. After starting 1/4 to 1/2 higher, with September 60 1/2 to 61c, the corn market underwent a general decline on all deliveries.

Large receipts and the expectation of a heavy run through the week took the edge off the corn market and the finish was unsettled, prices ranging from 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher with September 60 1/2 to 61c.

CASH RECEIPTS HEAVY
(By the Associated Press)
Minneapolis, Aug. 28.—Cash receipts were fairly heavy, more liberal than some in the trade looked for, but there was no lack of demand for the choice stuff and prices were firm compared with futures. Poor quality went mostly for shipment and was taken at about the same prices compared with September as prevailed Saturday. Durum wheat situation was firm. There was a good local milling demand for clean offerings of good quality. Winter wheat market was steady and there was a fair to good demand for the moderate offerings received.

MINNEAPOLIS RECEIPTS

Minneapolis, Aug. 28.—Wheat receipts 633 cars compared with 1,013 cars a year ago. Cash No. 1 northern $1.04 1/2 @ $1.10 1/2; September $1.02 1/2; December $1.03 1/2; May $1.07 1/2. COLLINS LAID TO REST IN GLASNERIN

Irish Patriot Buried Following Demonstration of National Grief

Good humor, the power of oratory and a laughing disregard for death—all were his and while immense throngs filled the great cathedral and lined the route to Glasnevin (congregations gathered in every city, town and hamlet throughout the land to mourn his passing). It was a military funeral. Fellow officers last night had borne the body to the cathedral just as Collins, a short fortnight ago helped bear the body of his colleague Griffith. They had stood guard all night and were there this morning when the solemn requiem high mass was celebrated before a multitude which overflowed the edifice into the streets. Upon the trembling young woman nearby—the eyes of all fell most pitifully—Kitty Kirnan, Collins' betrothed.

Outside lining the miles of Dublin streets, through which the funeral cortege later passed, thousands took part spiritually in the solemn mass or required many kneeling in prayer on the pavement at the fabled moment of the elevation of the sacred host.

Archbishop Byrne, head of the Dublin diocese, was the celebrant. After absolution the body was borne from the church and placed in the gun carriage and as it passed along the route to Glasnevin, many knelt in homage.

The cortege was imposing. First came an advance guard of national cavalry, then several hundred clergy, a firing party of Dublin guards and then the gun carriage with the body, surrounded by its guard of honor.

Following came the cabinet members and the general headquarters staff with the chief mourners riding in carriages. Then the members of the Dail, walking slowly, followed by the Lord Mayor, and the members of the Dublin corporation.

Next a pipe band playing a dirge as they marched, and numerous representatives of all Irish activities and organizations.

The body was buried in the plot of ground reserved for those who have fallen in the cause of the Irish Free State in the existing war of rebellion.
